Degree Staff Meets.

There was a special meeting of the degree staff of the Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge of Odd Fellows in the Odd Fellows Hall on West Main street Thursday night for practice. At the conclusion of the work a social session was delightfully held and dainty refreshments were served. The affair was a very pleasant one.

Maccabee Dance.

Most enjoyable to all in attendance was the dance given last evening in Hoffman Hall by the Ladies of the Maccabees. About 100 guests participated to the delightful program of music played by the Cadenza orchestra and much credit is due the committee in charge for the great success of this social affair.

Weekly Meeting.

The Westminster Guild held its regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon in the social room of the First Presbyterian church and the winter work was planned and discussed. Quite a number of its members were present.

RECITAL

Is to Be Given Here for the Eastern Star Chapter by Prof. Neil.

Prof. C. Edmund Neil, a member of the faculty of West Virginia University, has been engaged for the benefit of the Eastern Star chapter here to give "The Henrietta" in the Baptist church, Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. This recital is about Wall street, its doings and its victims. It is irresistible in humor, pathos and dramatic strength. Twelve lives are set forth in recital. Mr. Neil needs no introduction to the people of Clarksburg. He has read in nearly every state east of the Rocky mountains. During a single season he has appeared before more than two hundred audiences and has never failed to win the hearty favor of his hearers.

FARM

added much to the effect of the school and the good it will do.

The subjects under consideration during the week were horticulture, farm crops and soil fertility. They were discussed by men of experience both in theory and practice and many valuable hints were heard by the farmers of Harrison county.

Most prominent among the instructors is S. W. Moore, of Gallipolis, Perry, W. Va., one of the most successful orchard growers in the state. He has been instructing the school all week and has done much towards its success. C. R. Titlow, state director of agricultural extension, also addressed the school. E. W. Sheets, formerly from upper Harrison county, but now instructor in the College of Agriculture at Morgantown, addressed the school two days. I. S. Cook, Jr., head of the agronomy department of the state university, instructed the school Wednesday and Thursday and addressed the body Friday. W. H. Alderman, professor of horticulture, West Virginia University, was one of the instructors of the school Friday. The school will end Saturday.

JAILED

For Ten Days Are Foreigner and Girl by the Mayor.

Louis Forge, a foreigner, and a girl named Cottrell of Northview, who says she is 18 years old, were fined $10 and costs each this morning in police court by Mayor Frank R. Moore on conviction of assembling for an immoral purpose in a shanty near the Coca Cola bottling works on Poplar street. Neither could pay the amount of money required and they were sentenced to serve ten days each in jail.
